GONZALO
LOBO RAMÍREZ

PROFILE

I am Gonzalo Lobo Ramírez, I am 28 years old with a degree in Finance and Accounting from the University of Seville / SPAIN. The last year of my career I attended the ICESI UNIVERSITY in Colombia. I am also graduate in a Master's Degree in International Trade & Business

I would like to introduce myself as a Junior Full Stack Developer with a great learning capacity. I have experience developing web applications using technologies such as JavaScript,HTML, CSS & frameworks such as React. I also have experience developing back-end applications using languages like Node.js, & frameworks such as Express & Docker.

I am always looking for new challenges to continue growing professionally and I am willing to work as a team and collaborate with my co-workers to achieve the company's goals. My focus is always to provide high quality service and meet customer expectations. I am sure that my experience and skills would be of great benefit to your company.
